Have you ever given up? I know I have. However, from now on I am choosing to take the route to never give up, expect to win and to believe in myself.

One thing about me is I never give up. I also think that you can be that way too! First, you have to make sure you keep going. Next, just believe in yourself. Lastly, just try, if you try it makes a big difference in your life.

I don't know about you, but I think you should always expect to win. Expecting to win is almost 99% of the time good. This is one of Edward Everett Hale's famous quotes: "Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success." I thought this quote was important because if you expect to win you will be more likely to get success.

You should always believe in yourself. Here are some steps of how to always believe in yourself.

- Step 1: Give yourself positive thoughts.
- Step 2: Never think of negative thoughts.
- Step 3: Always believe in yourself and others.

Later in life I will definitely need all of these tips in my life. It will make it easier for me to look back at these paragraphs, and I'll say "I need to believe in myself more," or "I need to expect to win more often" or "I should stop quitting" or maybe even all of them. As long as you at least try to achieve your goals, you will make it in life.
